O R D E R :

1. While the Scheme of Farmer Debt Redemption was announced in June 2014, it is very important, time-bound scheme of the Government of AP and vide GO 2nd read above, a comprehensive GO on the Scheme was issued, basing on the recommendations of the Kotaiah Committee. The Government desired a smart application be designed to process the eligibility of the farmers under the scheme and to arrive the amounts eligible. The Advisor to (E-Gov, IT & Electronics) to CM, was associated with the design of the IT application to support the processing needs of the Scheme.

2. The design of the Smart Application was undertaken by the Finance Department, in close association with the IT Advisor and as agreed upon by the Finance Department, NIC was chosen as the agency to provide IT Support to the initiative. Over 50 meetings have been held during the span of the last 6 months in designing the application, and processing of the 82 lakh loan accounts of the farmers. The exercise was completely new and complex as the number of conditions and precautions to be observed was large and the data provided by the banks was not completely clean. A number of algorithms and process logics were required to be designed for the scheme.

3. The exercise was undertaken in 2 phases - Phase I and Phase II. The results of Phase I were published in the first week of Dec 14 and the results of Phase II were published on 20th March 2015. The exercise involved a total relief of about Rs 19,000 cr benefiting about 52 lakh loan accounts of farmers.

4. The IT support required significant effort, creativity, care and expertise in collection, collation, analysis of the loan records, against stringent timelines. The NIC team headed by Technical Director, worked with utmost devotion and commitment to produce highly satisfactory results, ensuring that maximum number of eligible farmers get the benefit and that the conditions of the GO are strictly observed.
